Use this form to file a grievance.

Please complete as much of the form as you can. Here is what you need to provide:

Member information: Find this on your member ID card.

Patient Information: Provide information about the person the request is for. If this person is the same as the member, leave this section blank.

Service/Claim Information: Tell us about the service, claim, or item related to your grievance. Find this information in letters from Highmark Health Options.

Reason for Grievance: Tell us about your grievance. Use additional paper if necessary. Include the names of any staff or doctors involved, type of service, and service dates.

Print First and Last Name: Print the name of the person listed in the Patient Information section if that person is 18 or older, or print the name of the parent or guardian.

Signature: The person listed in the Patient Information section should sign if that person is 18 or older. If that person is under age 18, the parent or guardian should sign.

Choose an authorized representative:
You can choose to have an authorized representative help you with your appeal. To appoint an authorized representative, complete the Member Appeal Representation Authorization Form.
